Do you want to know the country of origin of the meat we serve? Don't hesitate to ask your server.

I know. I'm a lot older than I look. At times I appear as a woman, but actually I am a bird. I go by many names – Zhu Que, Suzaku, Jujak – but I'm best known as The Vermilion Bird of the South. I'm dressed in feathers in five shades of red; shades made of fire.

I believe in virtue and duty, ritually correct behavior, humanity and reliability. I offer ease and spontaneity, joy and financial success. Although I'm mostly calm and collected, please don't misjudge me.

I have quite a temper and can easily explode.

Then I have to admit that I'm rather selective about what I eat and where I nest. That's why I'm happy to have found a place among people who seem to appreciate my nature. A place with a great view where I will do my best to ignite the spark. You are more than welcome to visit me whenever you like.

Just ask for me.
